City National Bank of Florida opens new Bird Road Center

BY JEFF BRAY

City National Bank of Florida (CNB) has expanded its high-touch, friendly service and experience to one of Greater Miami's oldest neighborhoods, recently opening its newest banking center at 9696 Bird Rd.

The 3,200-square-foot Bird Road banking center brings City National Bank's total number of locations throughout Florida to 26.

"This is a very exciting time for City National Bank," said Jorge Gonzalez, president and CEO of City National Bank of Florida. "The Bird Road banking center puts us in a great position to better serve our residential and commercial clients in west Miami-Dade County."

City National Bank of Florida has seen significant growth and expansion of services and banking center locations during the past year. CNB prides itself on its 65-year heritage of serving as the personalized banking team for clients across South Florida and beyond.

One of South Florida's most stable, reliable and sound banks, CNB prides itself on being large enough to give clients what they want, but small enough to do it the way clients want it. Bank professionals embrace the communities they serve and provide a diverse array of financial products and personal services to small businesses, corporate and commercial clients, and individuals.

Headquartered in Miami, City National Bank of Florida (CNB) is the financial institution to which Floridians have turned for 65 years. The fourth-largest financial institution in the state with more than $3.8 billion in assets, $2.8 billion in deposits and $1.8 billion in loans, City National Bank of Florida is backed by Caja Madrid, one of Spain's largest financial institutions, founded more than 300 years ago.
