CITY NATIONAL BANK OF FLORIDA ANNOUNCES BANKING CENTER CLOSURES RELATED TO HURRICANE DORIAN

MIAMI, FL, September 3 – City National Bank of Florida (CNB) has announced that Orlando banking centers will close Wednesday, September 4, due to the anticipated impact of Hurricane Dorian. These include:

- Downtown Orlando, located at 335 North Orange Avenue.
- Winter Park, located at 975 A Orange Avenue.

Depending on local conditions, including the availability of power and telephone service, the banking centers will reopen as quickly and safely as possible.

All banking centers in Miami-Dade, Broward and Palm Beach County will open business as usual on Wednesday, September 4.

If a City National Bank banking centers in your area is temporarily closed due to the storm, there are several alternative options available. All CNB clients have free access to the Presto ATM network, available at Publix Supermarket locations across the state. In addition, CNB's online banking and ePartner (www.citynational.com) are available 24 hours a day, where clients can transfer funds, pay bills and handle most banking needs.

City National Bank clients are urged to call 1-855-684-8284 or visit citynational.com for more information regarding CNB's banking center openings.

CNB will continue to assess local conditions and plan to reopen banking centers as soon as weather and safety permits.
